Book launch tomorrow

All families are warmly invited to attend the book launch of Assessment for Learning without Limits which was published in July and has received considerable interest. I shall give a short talk about the importance of inclusive teaching that provides challenge for every child. I hope that you will be able to come along. Light refreshments will be served from 6pm.

Welcome to Sally Barker as new staff governor

We are pleased to welcome Sally to the governing body. Our governors have the responsibility of recruiting our new headteacher. Under leadership of Tony Borden (Chair) they will work with our staff team and children to ensure that the successful candidate will build on the ethos of Wroxham. If you wish to contact the governors please inform the office and they will pass any letters or messages to Tony Borden on your behalf.

Lost property

There are several sacks of lost property from last year. Lorraine Leighton will recycle unwanted clothes for 'nearly new' resale but if you have lost something please take a look in lost property this week. It is most helpful if possessions can be named please. Thank you.

Future Olympian?

Congratulations to Alice from Year 4 who has been approached to train for the Special Olympics in swimming.

Canoe Slalom Talent

Zoe (Y5) and Charlie H (Y6) were selected following a competitive process in July including fitness testing and paddle ability to join the Great Britain canoe slalom talent identification programme at Lee Valley. They have both begun training five times a week and taking part in competitions. Congratulations!

Congratulations Mrs Cripps!

Lynn Cripps achieved a Distinction in her Tap Dancing exam. Well done! The end of term talent show will never be the same again Mrs Cripps.
